Attached are the preliminary agendas for the Tax Committee meetings to be held on Wednesday, February 24, beginning at 10:00 a.m., and Thursday, February 25, beginning at 9:30 a.m. All meetings will be held in the David Silver Conference Room, on the 12th floor of the Institute's offices at 1401 H Street, NW, Washington, DC 20005.

The format for the meetings on Wednesday the 24th, as we previously informed you, will vary from the generally-followed format. Specifically, two meetings will be held on the first day of the meetings; attendees at the meetings on the 24th will include tax experts from professional services firms who are being invited to provide additional insights on specific issues.

The first meeting on Wednesday the 24th, which will begin at 10:00 a.m., will continue the discussion from the last (October 2009) Tax Committee meeting regarding the possibility of U.S. funds recovering taxes withheld by various European countries on the funds' investment income. This meeting will include both Tax Committee members and representatives from professional services firms who are working with their fund clients to file claims. Lunch will be served after the first meeting concludes.

The second meeting on Wednesday the 24th, which will begin at 2:00 p.m., will address in detail the RIC Modernization legislation introduced in December 2009. [1] This meeting will include both Tax Committee members and representatives from professional services firms who specialize in investment company taxation.

The meeting on Thursday the 25th, which will begin at 9:30 a.m., will be limited to Tax Committee members. Lunch will be served at the conclusion of this meeting.
