The Global Retirement Savings Committee is hosting a webinar on the OECD's two publications, the 2018 Pensions Outlook^[1] and Financial Incentives and Retirement Savings^[2]. The OECD speakers also will discuss trends in defined contribution pension reforms and implications for our industry. Participation is complimentary. Speakers and Topics

We are pleased to have two guest speakers from the OECD:

Our speakers will provide an overview of both reports, with a focus on the 2018 Pensions Outlook, which includes analysis of (globally):

- The role of supplementary pension provision in retirement globally,
- Design of financial incentives to promote savings for retirement across the globe,
- Pension costs in the accumulation phase, and
