ICI Comment Letters in Response to Proposed Rule Changes by the NYSE and Nasdaq to Modify Listing Rules for Compensation Committees

TO: CLOSED-END INVESTMENT COMPANY MEMBERS No. 71-12
ETF ADVISORY COMMITTEE No. 43-12
SEC RULES MEMBERS No. 100-12 RE: ICI COMMENT LETTERS IN RESPONSE TO PROPOSED RULE CHANGES BY THE NYSE AND NASDAQ TO MODIFY LISTING RULES FOR COMPENSATION COMMITTEES

Recently, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) published for comment notices of proposed rule changes by the New York Stock Exchange LLC (“NYSE”) and The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) to modify their listing rules relating to compensation committees and compensation advisers to comply with Rule 10C-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. [\[1\]](#) ICI submitted comment letters in response to these notices, which are summarized below.

In the notices, the NYSE and Nasdaq proposed to amend their listing rules for compensation committees to comply with the requirements of Rule 10C-1, which, among other things, require each member of a listed issuer’s compensation committee to be a member of the board of directors and to be “independent” as defined in the listing standards. The NYSE and Nasdaq proposed to exempt from their revised listing rules issuers that are currently exempt from their existing compensation committee requirements. Therefore, as proposed, closed-end and open-end funds registered under the Investment Company 1940 Act would be exempt from the proposed requirements.

ICI letters strongly support the approach taken by the NYSE and Nasdaq. The letters state that registered investment companies, as significant investors in U.S. public companies, generally support the proposals to strengthen the effectiveness of compensation committees.

The letters also fully support the proposals to exempt investment companies from these requirements because of the fundamental structural differences between investment companies and operating companies. The letters urge the Commission to approve the proposed rule changes filed by the NYSE and Nasdaq.
