EU ESG: Draft Response to ESMA Consultation on Taxonomy Reporting for NFRD Entities (Including Asset Managers)

[32955]

December 1, 2020 TO: ESG Task Force EU ESG Disclosure Regulation Working Group ICI Global Regulated Funds Committee RE: EU ESG: Draft Response to ESMA Consultation on Taxonomy Reporting for NFRD Entities (Including Asset Managers)

Attached for your review is our draft response to ESMA's recent consultation[1] on draft advice to the European Commission on how issuers within scope of the Non-Financial Reporting Directive (NFRD) will report against the EU Taxonomy (as per Article 8 of the Taxonomy Regulation).[2] Issuer disclosure of Taxonomy alignment is important because asset managers will need this information to meet the upcoming requirement (per Articles 5 and 6 of the Taxonomy Regulation) to disclose Taxonomy alignment of investments for ESG funds—i.e., Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation (SFDR) Article 8 and 9 financial products.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or would like to discuss. We have included explanatory notes in the draft consultation response, and we previously circulated a more detailed summary of the consultation.[3]

Please provide any comments by this Thursday, noon ET. Apologies for the short turn, but this consultation has a very short timeline, and the deadline to respond is this Friday, 4 December 2020.
