INTERNATIONAL MEMBERS No. 4-14 RE: EU COMMISSION ADOPTS STANDARDS ON DERIVATIVES CONTRACTS BETWEEN NON-EU ENTITIES SUBJECT TO EU REGULATIONS

On February 13, the European Commission adopted regulatory technical standards ("RTS") specifying the circumstances in which derivatives transactions between two counterparties established outside the European Union ("EU") would be subject to the European Market Infrastructure Regulation ("EMIR"). [1] The European Commission adopted the RTS, which were issued by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA"), without modification. [2]

The RTS will become effective 20 days after the date of their publication in the Official Journal of the European Union. The relevant portions of the RTS addressing non-EU counterparties will become applicable six months after the RTS become effective. The RTS will be binding and apply directly in all Member States of the European Union.
