EQUITY MARKETS ADVISORY COMMITTEE No. 40-16 RE: EU BENCHMARKS REGULATION - ANALYSIS OF TECHNICAL STANDARDS

The European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) is developing draft technical standards under the EU's Benchmarks Regulation.^[1] On 29 September 2016, ESMA published a Consultation Paper (CP) setting out its draft proposals.^[2] Responses to the CP are due by 2 December 2016, via a reply form.^[3] ESMA has also announced that it is holding an open hearing on 8 November 2016 in Paris.^[4]

Cost/Benefit Analysis

As previously notified,^[5] ESMA has appointed Europe Economic Research Limited ("Europe Economics")^[6] - a consultancy specialising in the application of economics to public and business policy issues - to conduct cost/benefit analysis of the draft technical standards.

Europe Economics has approached ICI Global to seek member input, including through interviews, in parallel with ESMA's consultation. We are seeking: (i) input from members regarding the details and benefits of certain requirements; and (ii) expressions of interest from members to participate in bilateral interviews with Europe Economics. Our previous memo,^[7] outlines the high-level areas where ESMA has a mandate to develop technical standards. Europe Economics has published an online survey,^[8] to be completed by participants either on a standalone basis or in conjunction with an interview. A pdf version of the survey, which contains all questions of relevance to administrators, contributors and users, is attached.

Please advise Giles Swan on +44 207 961 0832 or at giles.swan@iciglobal.org if you are interested in contributing to this work, including participating in interviews with Europe Economics, or if you require any further information.
