The Institute has scheduled a one-day Investment Advisers Conference on September 27, at the Universal City Hilton and Towers Hotel in Los Angeles. As you will note from the attached preliminary program, there will be four panel discussions focused on federal regulatory developments, compliance issues, legislative and state developments, and marketing for advisers. We expect to have a senior SEC official deliver the keynote address. Tom Petrino, a Los Angeles Times reporter, will be the luncheon speaker. We will be mailing a brochure with more detailed information along with a registration form next month. In the meantime, mark your calendar for what promises to be an excellent program. Susan S.
