This bill, which is cosponsored by Senators Barack Obama (D-IL), Tom Carper (D-DE), and John Kerry (D-MA), is called the "Simplification Through Additional Reporting Tax (START) Act of 2006." S. 2414 would apply to the following securities acquired after December 31, 2007: • Shares of stock in a corporation; • Notes, bonds, debentures, or other evidence of indebtedness; • Interests in a regulated investment company; or • Other financial instruments designated in regulations by the IRS. The bill would not apply to interests in a trust or partnership. S. 2414 allows for alternative reporting when information sufficient to meet the basis reporting requirements is not available. The bill also calls for exchanges of information between brokers to facilitate compliance with the basis reporting requirements. 2 Karen Lau Assistant Counsel Attachment (in .pdf format) Note: Not all recipients receive the attachment.
