This conference is intended to bring together senior industry executives, lawyers, and accountants from around the world for an in-depth study of current issues facing money management firms in Asia. The conference will include regulator and industry panels exploring the regulatory implications of globalization of the fund industry as well as panels on the pension systems in Hong Kong, Japan, and Singapore. Panels also will focus on the future of the fund market in Japan and China, trends in corporate governance in Asia, and challenges in investing in various markets. The conference also will feature two concurrent sessions and breakfast discussion sessions focusing on Australia, India, Korea, Malaysia, Singapore, and Taiwan. A preliminary program and registration form will be mailed in the next few weeks. In the meantime, mark your calendar for January 10-12. Jennifer S. Choi Associate Counsel
