There is still time to register for the Institute's 1993 Investment Advisers Conference, scheduled for June 16-18 at the Capital Hilton Hotel in Washington, DC. The enclosed brochure describes some of the topics for discussion by the various panels and highlights some of the other activities that are planned for the conference. Several vendors have signed up to exhibit products or services currently available to investment advisers. Registration begins on the evening of Wednesday, June 16 in the Exhibit Hall at the hotel, where a buffet dinner will be served throughout the evening. Chris Matthews, Washington Bureau Chief for the "San Francisco Examiner," syndicated columnist and frequent guest on Good Morning America and the McLaughlin Group, promises to be an entertaining luncheon speaker. To register for the conference, please complete the form attached to the brochure and return it to the Institute as soon as possible. And make your hotel reservation by calling the Capital Hilton at 202/393-1000, where a block of rooms is still being held in the Institute's name. We look forward to seeing you in June. Thomas S. Selman Assistant Counsel Enclosure
