Today, the IDC announced that Amy Lancellotta has been named IDC Managing Director. Amy has been with our law department for more than 17 years, most recently as Senior Counsel for Securities Regulation. She has rendered distinguished service to the Institute and the membership in this key role and will bring great professional experience and industry knowledge to her new position with the IDC. We are grateful to Tamara Salmon, who has served very effectively for the past several months as Interim Managing Director for IDC, pending Amy's appointment on a permanent basis. Tami will be resuming her prior responsibilities in the law department. 2 With Amy's new assignment, we are making some organizational and personnel changes in the Institute's law department as well. Robert Grohowski, who has been a key contributor on our legal staff since 1998, will become Senior Counsel – Investment Companies. In this role, he will oversee issues arising under the Investment Company and Investment Advisers Acts and other matters primarily administered by the SEC's Division of Investment Management. Bob currently directs our international work, and he will continue to do so until we name a successor. Ari Burstein, an ICI lawyer for the past eight years who is widely recognized for his expertise on market structure and related issues, will become Senior Counsel – Capital Markets. In this role, Ari will oversee issues affecting fund investors under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as well as other matters primarily administered by the divisions of Market Regulation and Corporation Finance. Bob and Ari bring a wealth of experience to these roles. The new structure will permit us to maintain our traditional strong focus on core investment company matters while devoting increased attention to a growing portfolio of other securities regulatory matters impacting our members. Bob and Ari will report to Elizabeth Krentzman, our

General Counsel. They will work alongside Mary Podesta, Senior Counsel – Pension Regulation, and Keith Lawson, Senior Counsel – Tax Law, as leaders of the Institute’s outstanding legal team. Below are links to the press releases announcing these changes. I hope you will join me in congratulating Amy, Bob, and Ari on their important new positions with ICI. As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. Paul Schott Stevens President IDC Press Release:
