This conference is intended to bring together senior industry executives, lawyers, and accountants from around the world for an in-depth study of current issues facing money management firms in Asia. The conference will include regulator and industry panels exploring the regulatory implications of globalization of the fund industry as well as panels on the pension systems in Hong Kong, Japan and Singapore, and panels focusing on Japan and China and the mutual fund markets of Malaysia, the Philippines and Thailand. We also expect to hold breakfast discussion sessions focusing on Australia, Hong Kong, India, Singapore, Korea, and Taiwan. A preliminary program and registration form will be mailed this spring. In the meantime, mark your calendar for November 12-14. Jennifer S. Choi Associate Counsel
