REQUEST TO PROVIDE TRAINING IN RUSSIA

February 2, 1996 TO: INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE No. 5-96 RE: REQUEST TO PROVIDE TRAINING IN RUSSIA

_____. Attached is a letter describing a pilot program of the Russian Federation Commission on Securities and Capital Markets to create nine unit investment trusts under the Commission's supervision and regulation and develop a training program for unit investment trust personnel. Burson-Marsteller, which is assisting the Commission under a contract with the United States Agency for International Development, is looking for persons who would be willing to help teach a three-day seminar in Moscow covering matters such as disclosure, mutual fund operations, advertising rules and performance measurements, with reference to the US regulatory framework. Expenses likely will be covered by US AID. If you are interested, or would like additional information, please contact Mary McCue at Burson-Marsteller at 202-833-4838. Mary S. Podesta Associate Counsel - International Attachment
