MEETINGS WITH MEMBERS OF CONGRESS JANUARY 11

December 14, 1994 TO: BOARD OF GOVERNORS No. 124-94 RE: MEETINGS WITH MEMBERS
OF CONGRESS JANUARY 11

_____ We are scheduling meetings for January 11, 1995 with Members of Congress to discuss legislative efforts to expand the availability of Individual Retirement Accounts (See Memorandum to Board of Governors No. 121-94 dated December 8, 1994). We believe that now is the critical time to demonstrate support for the IRA because House Republicans are committed to passing tax legislation in the first one hundred days of the session. Thus, we cannot (as we might normally) wait until the May Washington meeting of the Board of Governors to schedule these visits. Please return the attached form by fax if you can make yourself available for a series of meetings on that day. Matthew P. Fink President
