WHITE HOUSE BRIEFING

September 30, 1993 TO: BOARD OF GOVERNORS NO. 86-93 RE: WHITE HOUSE BRIEFING

_____ We have been advised that a White House Briefing for the Board of Governor's can only occur at 5:00pm, Wednesday, October 6. We have also been told by the White House that it will work to grant our request to meet with particular Administration representatives, including USTR Mickey Kantor, National Economic Council head Robert Rubin, Treasury Under Secretary Frank Newman, and Commerce Secretary Ron Brown. As is the case with all such meetings, the schedule is subject completely to the daily requirements of the Office of the President. Therefore, an agenda of speakers, while probable, is not guaranteed. We recognize that this meeting time would represent a significant change in your schedule, but nevertheless wanted to offer this opportunity to you. We will only go forward with the White House briefing if a majority of Governors can attend. Therefore, WITHIN 24 HOURS, will you please advise us of your ability to attend the meeting.
