The initiative promotes the Brazilian capital markets to international investors, provides investors with information on developments in the Brazilian capital markets, and allows for a channel of communication with prominent representatives of the Brazilian capital market. The Securities and Exchange Commission of Brazil (CVM), the Central Bank of Brazil (BCB), and the Brazilian National Treasury (TN) also participate in the initiative. BEST Brazil has invited interested Institute members to attend a road show scheduled for June 20 in New York City and June 21 in San Francisco. BEST Brazil sponsored a similar event in New York City in November 2005. A "save-the-date" invitation to the event is attached.
