Rescheduled ICI Global ESG Priorities Call, 17 February

[34014]

January 27, 2022

TO: ESG Advisory Group
ESG Task Force
EU ESG Disclosure Regulation Working Group RE: Rescheduled ICI Global ESG Priorities Call, 17 February

On Thursday, February 17 at 9:00 a.m. EST/2:00 p.m. GMT, ICI Global will hold a call to update members on sustainable finance policy developments over the last few months and to look ahead at anticipated developments in 2022. We will cover international, European Union, UK, and Asia issues and we want to hear your thoughts on which files and workstreams you are prioritizing in your policy engagement and where ICI's advocacy efforts can be most helpful.

Discussion topics will include:

- International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB)
- IOSCO Recommendations (asset management and ESG data/ratings providers)
- EU CSRD, Sustainable Corporate Governance, and EFRAG sustainability standards
- EU SFDR, Taxonomy, and MiFID suitability
- EU Member State rules affecting marketing and distribution (AMF Doctrine, BaFin marketing of sustainable funds, FINMA anti-greenwashing)
- IPSF Common Ground Taxonomy
- UK SDR
- UK FCA sustainable investment labelling
- Hong Kong SFC Circular on ESG Funds
- Hong Kong SFC Requirements on managing/disclosing climate-related risks
- Singapore soft consultation on ESG funds
- MAS Guidelines on environmental risk management

We are aiming for an active discussion and hope you can join us.
