In Case You Missed It: Coverage of House Financial Services Committee Hearing on Funds

The future of money market funds, how to define "systemic risk" to the financial system, and fiduciary standards for retirement plans were among the topics discussed at a hearing last week before the House Financial Services Subcommittee on Capital Markets and Government Sponsored Enterprises. ICI President Paul Schott Stevens testified at the hearing, along with representatives from ICI member firms Fidelity Management & Research Company and the Vanguard Group.

The hearing itself drew coverage in the news media, notably the following stories:
