Institute Identifies Industry-Related and Other Relief Funds, September 2001

Institute Identifies Industry-Related and Other Relief Funds

Washington, DC, September 21, 2001 - A number of employees at Institute member firms were among those whose lives were taken on September 11. We offer our deepest sympathy to their families and to others who have lost family, friends, and associates as the result of last week's tragic events. In the wake of this tragedy, many Institute members have contacted us to express their concern and condolences, and have expressed an interest in contributing to industry-related and other relief efforts.

The Institute has identified several relief funds that Institute member firms and their officers, directors, and employees may wish to support. Included in the list are two relief funds established by Institute member firms that were among those who suffered significant losses.

The relief funds are:

- The Foundation for Alger Families;
- FT Fiduciary Trust Memorial Fund
- International Association of Fire Fighters New York Firefighters 9-11 Disaster Relief Fund
- World Trade Center Police Disaster Fund;
- Survivors' Fund of the Community Foundation of the National Capital Region

Contributions may be sent directly to the relief funds at the addresses listed below.

The Foundation for Alger Families

Thirty-five of the 55 employees of Fred Alger Management Inc., who worked on the 93rd floor of One World Trade Center, are missing. The Foundation for Alger Families has been formed to provide disaster relief and emergency hardship assistance to the families of employees who were killed or injured. The foundation will provide loans and grants to ensure that these families have basic necessities such as food and medical assistance. The foundation also hopes to provide financial assistance to educate children who lose a parent in the tragedy. Make checks payable to: The Foundation for Alger Families.
