ESG Fund Investing: The 2021 Landscape

Environmental, social, and governance (ESG) investing continues to rapidly expand and is expected to be a top area of focus for policymakers and regulators around the globe this year.

This webinar included prominent industry voices, including SEC Acting Chair Allison Herren Lee, who spoke about the intersection of climate change risk and financial regulation, the roles of key sustainability standard setters, the market for ESG funds, and more. Attendees learned what these developments mean for funds and their managers and shareholders.
