Solving Portfolio Reconciliation Challenges: Learn from the Experts

On October 3, ICI held the second in a series of ICI webinars addressing the challenging landscape for collateral management and derivatives operations.

This webinar explored:

- The importance of data normalization in the reconciliation process
- Data reconciliation requirements and how a firm uses the same data for multiple reconciliations
- Coordinating the change management process in response to evolving requirements and regulations
- Cross-border reconciliation challenges
- Trade repositories and central reconciliation venues

The webinar was designed for both operations and legal professionals in the asset management industry.
