IDC Webinar: Legislative Update: An Overview for Fund Directors Archive Recording

Having passed its far-reaching tax bill, the Republican majorities in Congress have turned to pursuing reforms of the Dodd-Frank Act while dealing with the political complexities of legislating before midterm election this fall. Panelists Dean Sackett and Don Auerbach, co-leaders of ICI's Government Affairs team, led a wide-ranging discussion of the 2018 congressional landscape and the financial services, tax, and retirement policy agendas.

Highlights

This session explored the following topics:

- Effects of the current political environment on the 2018 congressional midterm elections
- Status of financial services legislation affecting registered funds
- Tax reforms
- Retirement security
