IDC Webinar: Board Oversight of ETFs Archive Recording

Exchange-traded funds (ETFs) have grown markedly over the past decade, as both institutional and individual investors have increasingly turned to them as investment options. Though they share some basic characteristics with mutual funds, there are key differences between the two types of investment products. This short but informative event featured industry experts who explored various issues and answered any questions you had.

Highlights

This session explored the following topics:

- ETF trends
- Overview of how ETFs operate
- Board oversight responsibilities
