IDC Webinar: Money Market Fund Reform Implementation: An Update for Fund Directors Archive Recording

Fund complexes are implementing the 2014 money market fund reforms and working toward the October 14, 2016, compliance deadline for the floating NAV and fees and gates requirements. IDC held a webinar on July 21, 2016, designed for directors of money market funds, to provide an update on the industry's implementation of the reforms and their implications for board oversight in different market environments.

Highlights

The webinar covered:

- Status of money market fund reform implementation, including stress testing and board reports
- Fees and gates—potential approaches to policies and procedures and board considerations
- Scenario planning
