IDC Webinar: Spotlight on the SEC's Swing Pricing and Hard Close Proposals Archive Recording

The Security and Exchange Commission's recent proposals to mandate swing pricing for open-end funds and impose a hard close have the potential to harm mutual funds. This informational webinar will provide details about the proposals, their impacts on the industry, and other key information to fund boards should know ahead of the 60-day Federal Register comment period opening. Panelists will address what boards need to know, and discuss questions fund directors might have about how these proposals may impact their roles.
