IDC Webinar: 2024 Post-Election Insights Archive Recording

Just over a week after one of the closest elections in modern history, the Independent Directors Council will host a webinar featuring ICI's Chief Government Affairs Officer, John Emling, focusing on the potential impact of the election on the work of fund boards, and, more broadly, the asset management industry.

John will also share his insights into the election's impact on the 119th Congress, including congressional leadership, their policy priorities and initiatives, and the legislative agenda.
